

DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1907.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1904.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, JULY 13, 1904.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

THE INSTALLMENT PLAN.
Said Marcus Downe of Spotsash Town
To Pretty Mamie New,
My love I'd speak, but twelve a week
Will scarcely keep up two.
She whispered low, "A thing I know
Besides the age of Ann,
Just down the hill is Creditville,
And the installment man."
So down the hill in Creditville
Marc bought— for a dollar down
And a note for ten, with a mortgage end—
A wedding ring and gown.
The preacher said, "You two I wed.
Five dollars is my fee.
But you only pay ten cents a day,
That's satisfactory."
Then Marcus bought a house and lot
On the installment plan;
He closed a deal for an automobile
As big as a moving van;
He hastily wrote for a sealskin coat—
A present for his wife;
And, with a gown from Paristown,
Insurance on his life.
'Twas easy to get a cabinet
And pots, and pans, and tins,
Rugs and chairs, and shoes—six pairs,
Hammers and tacks and pins;
Books and songs, and dinner gongs,
Pills and powders and hay;
Tables and beds, blankets and spreads,
All for a dime a day.
Early and late at Marc's side gate
Some sort of a wagon stood,
Unloading machines or magazines,
Or a case of breakfast food.
But finally his salary
The payments wouldn't meet;
Back to the store went goods galore,
And Marc went into the street.
"We'll start anew—I still have you,"
Marc pacified his bride.
"You'll have her when," a voice broke in,
"My bill is satisfied!"
'Twas the preach man. In a moving van
He took Marc's bride away.
Now Marcus Downe of Spotsash Town
Has nothing more to say.

"There Isn't One
Really Good
Printer in Five Hundred."

Printers' Ink—the leading journal on publicity of all kinds—has the following to say: "There are thousands of printers in this country, good, indifferent, and a lot of bad ones. There isn't one really good printer in five hundred. Intelligent advertisers are willing to pay for good printing, no matter where it comes from."

Printers' Ink knows what it is talking about. Poor printing is a bad investment —it's worse than a blank. A business man's stationery or booklet is like a traveling man—if it's neat, well-dressed and to the point, the first impression is good and your chances of doing business on the strength of it are good.

We realize this. We keep abreast of the times. We know what good printing is and produce it. We are pretty careful not to let a bum job get onto our presses.
No press in the country can better our printing and we want you to know it.

The latest from Miss Sally Lamb was a 'phone was such as to preclude all hope of recovery.

Mr. Joseph H. Lawrence, carriage manufacturer of West Second street, made an assignment yesterday to Harry L. Walsh, with

The Paxton reunion at the World's Fair in June was a grand occasion, four hundred members being present the first day and more than two hundred coming afterward. Mr. W. M.
Paxton, an ex-Mason coultian, was the patriarch of the jubilee, and was highly congratulated on the result of his infatigable labor by all those who attended. Although 86 years of age, he is yet hale and hearty.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Mr. Russell Hopper entertained a number of young ladies and gentlemen yesterday morning at box-ball in the Y. M. C. A. parlors from 9:30 till 12 o'clock, the happy occasion being in honor of Maysville's charming visitors, Miss Hall of Pittsburgh, Miss Molloy of Shelbyville, Miss Doniphan of Augusta and Miss Chenoweth of Birmingham, Ala.

The parlors were exquisitely decorated in roses, sweet peas and ferns.

The lemonade bowl was presided over by the charming Misses Pattie Carr, Frances and Elizabeth Barbour and Hattie Cochran. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Hopper was assisted in chaperoning these gay young people by Mesdames S. A.
Shanklin and Walter Watson and Secretary R.
Brown.

Miss Ida Hiatt delightfully entertained a few friends last evening at her home in Forest avenue. The hours were most enjoyably passed with music and interesting games, and refreshments were served.

Mrs. John P. McCartney entertained with finch Friday last at her home at Flemingsburg in honor of Mrs. Charles D. Newell of this city.

Y. M. C. A. CAMP

Party Soon to Leave on a Fine Outing Up the Ohio

The Y. M. C. A. boys to the number of twelve or fifteen, under the care and guidance of Secretary R. R. Brown, will leave the first of next week for an outing of about ten days. The boys will camp at Brush creek, some miles up the Ohio river, where they will find healthful recreation in swimming, rowing, fishing and hunting.

A season spent in this manner will do the young men a world of good; they will return home brown as berries and strong as oxen, ready to take up their studies or work with renewed strength and energy.

The genial Secretary is the very man to be in charge. He will look after the boys with a fatherly care, at the same time allowing them liberty to enjoy the occasion to the fullest extent.

Bon voyage to you, lads.

The United States Court of Appeals at Cin-

$500,000. Judge Cochran held that the grant was void, as it called for more than 200 acres, and it was on this point that he was reversed
by the Appellate Court.

learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity.
Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of tes-

THE Weather Clerk said it would be "fair" last Friday; and that's why the two hours rain nearly washed Limestone creek out by the roots.

THE Democrats are so well pleased with Judge PARKER's nomination—and his gold plank telegram—that they have already elected him to the Presidency—on paper.

WHEN the people of Kentucky indorse a Legislature that refuses to repair a monument to HENRY CLAY, while it illegally appropriates $20,000 to build a monument to a murderer, it is about time for the curtain to fall.

THE business men of Maysville must act quickly if they do not want the Public Building erected two blocks away from the Eastern edge of the business center, and what will be the business center for many years to come.

"HELLO, old boy! How are you?"

"Sorter tired, thank you."

"Why, I haven't seen you for some time. Where have you been—to the World's Fair?"

"Lord, no; I've been out to the Government Building."

It didn't take Judge PARKER long to tell the Democratic Convention and the country just where he stood on the money question; but what we'd like to know is how he stands on the question of putting the Maysville Postoffice out in the woods.

Who will start a petition to the Secretary of the Treasury, asking that a Special Agent be sent here to stay at least long enough to walk from the business center to the country site which Mr. WINDOM selected for Maysville's Postoffice? If the Secretary will send a man here, he will soon see that a grave mistake has been made, and that gross injustice will be done by erecting a building on the lot selected.

THE Government gave the people of Maysville abundant time and opportunity to enter any protests and objections they might have to the selection of the Hunter lot as the location for the Public Building, but so far as The Bulletin knows not a protest was filed. The lot has been purchased and paid for, the deed duly executed, plans for the building prepared and bids advertised for its erection, and it seems a little late now to raise a howl over the location.—Evening Bulletin.

Oh, it's never too late to do good!

The main reason why no protest was filed at an earlier date was simply because the people of Maysville couldn't believe it possible that the Secretary of the Treasury would approve such a miserable and such an unfit location for the Public Building.

And it was only after bids were called for for the erection of the building that many of our people realized that a protest was necessary in order to prevent a positive injury to the business of the city.

THE LEDGER begs once more that a respectful petition be sent to Secretary SHAW, urging him to send a Special Agent here to view the hole in the ground, the "corner" lot in the middle of a block, and other incompatible surroundings which Mr. WINDOM so strangely decided upon as the site for Maysville's Public Building.

HEALTHY MOTHERS.

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Boschee's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup; so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectation easy, and gives instant relief and refreshing rest to the cough-racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25c; large size, 75c. For sale by Henry W. Ray, Postoffice Druggist.

COLOSSAL TAX SUIT

Filed In Jefferson County Court By Auditor's Agent

In the County Court at Louisville, the Auditor's Agent of Jefferson county, himself a lawyer, has, through his Attorney, Hon. Allan D. Cole, brought suit to assess the franchise of the Illinois Central Railway Company as a Kentucky corporation; the contention being made that compliance, in 1893, with Section 841 Kentucky Statutes created a new and distinct corporation for the purposes of taxation.

The capital stock of the Company is $95,040,000; it has 5,463 miles of road and its yearly gross earnings are $45,186,076.

The amount of taxes sought to be recovered by the Commonwealth is $3,000,000.

The steamers are enjoying many races on the Ohio now. The Bonanza and the Queen City, a day or so ago, ran side by side the entire distance from Cincinnati to Catlettsburg, where the Queen City took on a carnival company, thus delaying her from keeping up with the Bonanza to upper points. Monday the Henry M. Stanley and the Virginia began a race at Huntington down the river, but the Stanley was some distance in the lead when the boats passed this city.

PLENTY OF IT

Lots More Proof Like This, and It Is All From Maysville People

"The proof of the pudding is in the eating of it." If any city or town in the Union has sufficient proof on the following subject it is Maysville. Genuine merit is finding its reward in the hearty indorsement of local citizens. When people right here at home, friends and neighbors of our readers, give a statement like the following for publication it is proof convincing for the most skeptical. Read this testimony:

Mr. A. W. McClanahan of 119 West Second street says: "The use in my case fully demonstrated the value of Doan's Kidney Pills. I suffered more or less from kidney trouble for twenty years, steadily becoming more persistent as time passed on. My attention was called to Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box at J. James Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets. The treatment so greatly benefited me that my only regret is that I did not know of this valuable remedy years ago, for had such been the case I would have been saved much suffering."

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Three of the McKnights with three horses were sheltering under a tree when the rain got too hard for them and they broke for the barn. As soon as they entered the barn lightning struck the tree.

We are having an abundance of rain and all crops are exhibiting a rank growth. On account of the severe drouth last year there was but little wheat sown and the unusual long winter that followed, and then plentiful rains in the spring, caused it to be thin and weedy. The usual amount of tobacco is out and in fine growing order.

HERE'S A GOOD ONE

"Tit Bits" Tells the Champion Bicycle Lie of the Season

The other day a man was relating a few of his wonderful performances and remarkable escapes from death whilst cycling. He was a good talker and held his listeners spell-bound. "Fair," said a small man in a corner, "but it ain't up to my sample." Then, clearing his throat, he commenced:

"I was riding a brakeless bicycle down a steep hill in the North, when the chain snapped, and in a few seconds I was spinning down the hill at about sixty miles an hour. Near the bottom of the hill the road turned at right angles, and an old thatched cottage stood directly in the way. While undecided whether to risk the sudden turn or the equally dangerous crash, a man came along the road with a plank, which he leaned against the eaves of the cottage while he had a rest. Quick as thought I roared straight for the plank, and was soon careering wildly up the straw-covered roof. The cottage and a few assistants were at the back shaki carpets, and I and my machine, tottering on into their midst, were caught in the middle of the outstretched carpet, and gently lowered to the ground."

Then there was a silence while the company thought the matter over.
